

late you on your good fortune. The joy and surprise and deep gratitude of Howard cannot be expressed. He was now rich, and happiness once more smiled where misfortune had so lately frowned.

Twenty years after this event a party of American naval officers were presented to Louis Philippe by the American minister. The name of one of them, as he was announced, arrested the monarch's ear. He fixed upon the handsome young lieutenant his gaze so closely that he colored and drew back.

"Monsieur," said the French king, advancing and speaking with kindly courtesy, "your name is familiar to me. Perhaps you are related to Captain Howard Hazard Holley, of Hallowell, who died a few years ago."

"I am his son, sir." His son cried the king with joyful surprise. "Let me embrace you. Your father saved my life. I am the foreigner of whom doubtless you have heard him and your excellent grandmother speak."

The astonishment and pleasure of the young American may be imagined. He was compelled by the grateful monarch to make his peace his home while he remained in Paris; and when he quitted France he was loaded with costly gifts as expressions of his majesty's lively remembrance of his father.

The rock from which the exile fell is still pointed out by "John," now an old gray headed man, who is never weary of telling the story, and of exhibiting a gold cross which the "foreigner" had bestowed upon him.

NEWPORT,
144 Thames Street.

THURSDAY MORNING, Feb. 19, 1857.

E. TOURJEE, Esq., is hereby authorized to transact for us any business connected with the News and Journal office, of this city.

MR. EDITOR.

What lurking Thug is this "Moral Order," who attempts the part of character assassin, and who would have us receive Mr. Emerson with empty benches? Empty benches indeed! Let "Moral Order" and others of like bigot kidney go and occupy as many seats as possible if they would have them thoroughly empty; empty with solid emptiness, which like the darkness of Egypt, can be felt! What morality is this which condemns unheard, and which is actively trying to make its own blindness contagious? Mr. Editor, it is my honest opinion that this "Scribe and Pharisee," who would put under ban a lecture he has never heard, has done just as mean and wicked a thing as he knew how to do. But perhaps I am mistaken, and possibly "Moral Order" only signifies well meaning or ambitious Silliness, which having heard how much reputation the original Mrs. Partington achieved by her courageous attempt to mop up the Ocean when it was impertinently flooding her cottage, has thought to attain a like distinction by attempting to "wipe out" Mr. Emerson. But Mrs. Partington failed, her mop was too small. Will not the citizens of Newport who have faith enough in God and Man, not to require blindness to their eyes or "Moral Order" cotton in their ears, take special pains to provide Mr. Emerson with an audience which will first hear and then judge? Are we in this liberty loving, free speaking Rhode Island, and in this country, to be like a drove of ostriches and hide our heads under our wings, or like a drove of donkeys which by dint of braying might put down Cicero or St. Paul? That was not Roger Williams' fashion.

Personally I neither know nor care for Mr. Emerson, and as an author I know him not; but I hate Thugs; and "Moral Order" garruling, however fashionable, is not just the thing. Will you not divide with me the awful risk of hearing what the man of Concord has to say, even though we must go without the saving presence of those self constituted persons who seem to think "like Otaheite Cooks," "No food is fit to eat till they have chewed it."

HEAR.

The following friendly notice is from the Providence Journal.

A LARGE NEWSPAPER COMPANY.—We notice, by an advertisement in the Newport Advertiser, that the following gentlemen have entered into a special copartnership for the publication of the Newport News, the first named being the general partner, and the others contributing to the capital the sums designated. Very few papers can show so large and respectable a list of proprietors:

"John Hobart; Wm. W. Hoppin, $200; Rowland G. Hazard, $300; Edward W. Lawton, $150; Felix Peckham, $150; Clark Burdick, $50; Rowland R. Hazard, Jr., $500; Francis B. Peckham, $500; J. Prescott Hall, $350; Hamilton Hoppin, $150; William G. Peckham, $100; Micah W. Spencer, $50; William S. Nichols, $50; William B. Swan, $50; George W. Perry, $50; John A. Peckham, $100; Joseph T. Perry, $50; George H. Calvert, $100; Oliver Chase, $50; William J. Swinburne, $50."—Prov. Journal.

It is due to say that several eminent gentlemen contributed to the funds of the establishment whose names are not included in the above list.

The Address to the American Councils.

This document has made its appearance at a time when there seems to be a general desire on the part of a large majority of both the "American" and "Republican" parties to join issue upon a common platform, and though I simply command such a course, as the one dictated by prudence and common sense, yet I cannot permit the occasion to pass without a remark or two upon a certain passage of the "Address," that I think will hardly bear critical examination. I am not impelled by a mere idle desire to say something, or the more culpable one of preventing a cordial understanding between the parties, but only to put in a disclaimer on behalf of original, thorough-going Republicans, against the statements which are made by the highest authority of the "American Party" in the State. The address says, "We have seen another Presidential election carried by a perfect concentration of the foreign vote in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Indiana, on the side of the foreign pro-slavery candidate for the Presidency." Doubtless the "President of the Councils" in making this statement thought it was true, for he is a gentleman, as too young a politician to be an apt dissembler, but I must confess to an anxiety to know by what process the quoted conclusions have been arrived at. With my present light on the subject I am amazed that he should have fallen into so grave an error.

"The concentration of foreign vote" in New Jersey was exactly 46,913, against 52,453 opposition vote, so that it certainly did not "carry" New Jersey. In Indiana it is true that the Democratic party had a clear majority over the opposition, as they did in Pennsylvania; but in Illinois, the opposition majority was 28,285, so that as regards two of the four states, which are classed in the address as "carried by a concentration of foreign vote," the record will not justify the statement. The mere changes of the electoral votes of those two states would not have elected Mr. Fremont; it is true, but the state of Indiana and Pennsylvania could easily have been carried by a united opposition. If the "President" has any faith in "electioneering," and we judge from his recent "stumping" that he has undue confidence in it, he will probably be prepared to admit that the exertions of "American" Orators and "American" presses, appealing as they did to the excited apprehensions of a large class of Anti-Slavery voters, in regard to Mr. Fremont's "Catholicism," alone prevented the election of Mr. Fremont, who had endorsed "American Principles," and was the nominee of a very large, and intelligent portion of the American Party. So that to attribute the election of Mr. Buchanan to any other cause than either the want of sagacity in the Northern Fillmore party, or to their desire to have the Ocean when it was impertinently flooding her cottage, has thought to attain a like distinction by attempting to "wipe out" Mr. Emerson. But Mrs. Partington failed, her mop was too small. Will not the citizens of Newport who have faith enough in God and Man, not to require blindness to their eyes or "Moral Order" cotton in their ears, take special pains to provide Mr. Emerson with an audience which will first hear and then judge? Are we in this liberty loving, free speaking Rhode Island, and in this country, to be like a drove of ostriches and hide our heads under our wings, or like a drove of donkeys which by dint of braying might put down Cicero or St. Paul? That was not Roger Williams' fashion.

Yours very truly

ATTACKED BY A SHARK.—A boatsteerer, named Cornelius Coughlan, of New York, belonging to ship Navigator, of Edgartown, while bathing at Lahaina, previous to Nov. 30th, was attacked by a large shark, which caught him at first by the heel, but did not succeed in taking him down; at the next attack he took off the calf of his leg, but the man still swam towards his boat, the shark pursuing; at the third attack, the shark took him by the stomach, and made one breach and went down with him in his jaws.

The Chinese dignitary, Yeh, who, in reply to the complaint that an American boat had been fired upon by the Chinese, said that it was difficult to tell the Americans in the English, and the best way would be for the former to keep out of the Chinese territories, has at length learned to tell the difference between enemies and neutrals. This important lesson was taught in the destruction of the torts by the American ships of war. Yeh has given assurances that his mistake shall not be repeated.

THE BOND STREET MURDER.—After the jury had retired, Dr. G. F. Woodward was sworn by the Coroner, and entered their room to testify to the jurors that he had been handed the dagger produced in court during the day and which was similar in all respects to the one purchased by Snodgrass; that is was handed to him for the purpose of ascertaining whether it could produce wounds similar to those on the body of the deceased; that for this purpose he had tried it on a dead body and found the wound produced similar in all respects, as well on the body as on the clothing.—N. Y. Herald.

The Recorder delivered a special charge to the Grand Jury this morning, with regard to its duties in the case of Mrs. Cunningham Ekel and Snodgrass, which is to be presented for their consideration to-day.—N. Y. Post.

FROM WASHINGTON.—Washington, Feb. 15.—[Times Correspondence.] There is little doubt that the Corruption Committee will report on Tuesday. They will report in favor of the expulsion of at least three members. A movement will probably be made to suppress the publication of the report, which will fail if attempted.

Eightieths 10 9-10 "
Sixtieths 5 1-8 "

The Treasurer of the Mint pays in the issue of silver, for amounts exceeding $5 in value, immediately upon ascertaining the weight of such as are presented, at the rate of $1 22 1-2 per troy ounce.

CORRUPTION IN THE STATE OF OHIO.—The Report of the Joint Committee of the General Assembly of Ohio upon Public Institutions and Buildings announces a total of detected over-charges and stealings from the State amounting to $279,383.

THE HOLYOKE BANK NORTHAMPTON.—The Supreme Court of Massachusetts (full bench have considered the reserved question of the forfeiture of the charter of this bank, because of its recent irregularities, and decided against such a forfeiture. It will go forward in business therefore.

Defiance Salamander Safety!!

NEW YORK, Nov. 4th, 1856.

MR. ROTH, M. PATRICK, 152 Pearl-Str.

DEAR SIR.—The Defiance Safe, No. 5,778, purchased from you about eighteen months since, was in my house at Newport, R. I., which with the furniture was entirely destroyed by fire on the night of 5th the June last. The Safe, after being exposed to an intense heat for many hours, was recovered on the 13th of June. Not having the necessary tools at hand to open it, the same has stood just as when recovered, until shipped to your address, Nov. 1st. When opened at your store this morning, I was agreeably surprised, as were also others present, to find the contents, consisting of valuable silver plate, &c., in as perfect order as when placed therein. It is with pleasure I add my testimony to the merits of the Safes of your manufacture. Yours, Respectfully,

DANIEL PARISH.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.

DR. DURONCA's Golden Periodical Pills for Females. Perfectly harmless, yet wonderfully and powerfully efficacious in correcting, regulating, and removing all obstructions from whatever cause.

All medical men know, as well as many others, that no female can enjoy good health, unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health begins immediately to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, Pain in the Side, Palpitation of the Heart, Loathing of Food, and Disturbed Sleep, do most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils; and may always be used successfully as a preventive. Price $1.00 per box. For sale by HAZARD & CASWELL, 12 Washington Square, and 137 Thames St. They will supply the trade at manufacturer's prices. Ladies, by enclosing $1.00 to STURGIS & CO., Box 24 New Post Office, can have the Pills sent (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country.

HEALTH OF DR. KANE.—A letter from L'ewt. Gov. Cushman, who is spending the winter in Cuba, gives some interesting but painful intelligence in regard to the health of Dr. Kane. He says: "As in duty bound, soon after I arrived here, I called to pay my respects to him at his quarters; but I was sorry to learn he was so low that he could not see company. His mother did not even see him for ten days after she arrived. The fore part of January he seemed to gain a little in strength, but for the last week he has somewhat relapsed. His disease is of the scrofulous character, contracted during his severe labors and privations in the Arctic regions. He has not been out of his room since he came here, and his friends have great fears that he will never recover. Such a loss, I pray God, we may not experience."—Traveller.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BOSTON, MASS., Oct. 1855.

Dr. J. A. Ayer.—I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your CHERRY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess singular virtues for the treatment of these complaints.—EBER KNIGHT, M.D.

ALFRED SMITH, Esq., of New York, writes: "I have used your PECTORAL, and find it a family remedy since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., Feb. 7, 1855.

REGISTER ATEN: I will cheerfully certify your PECTORAL is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of our Country in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to the public.

THOMAS CONKLIN, M.D.

ANOS LEE, Esq., NEW YORK, writes: "I had a felonious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your PECTORAL by the advice of our clergymen. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your name as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisis, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, MASS., Feb. 18, 1855.

SIR: Your CHERRY PECTORAL is a perfect remedy for this disease in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years.

HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant.

A. A. HANSEY, M.D., ASHOK, MONROE CO., IOWA, writes, Sept. 1, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your CHERRY PECTORAL for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are cureable."

We might add volume of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach; but even to those the CHERRY PECTORAL affords relief and comfort.

ASTOR HOME, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1856.

DOCTOR ALEX. LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended your PECTORAL. We bleed this morning, and we do your skill for her recovery from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well. Yours with gratitude and regard.

OLIVER SHIMBY, or Shamburle.

Quackery, do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cure all around us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

SCIENCES of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they will unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the everyday complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief; were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent Clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use and certificates of their cure, of the following complaints:

Coldness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropped Headache, Headache arising from a foul Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Mental Inertia of the Bowels and Brain, Arthritis, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Heart, and other Chronic Diseases which require a protracted Medicinal Serum or King's Elixir. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S PILLS, and take nothing else. Not only can you give you compars with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.
